Monthly Newsletter – May 2019

From the Chairman, Barrie Hamill

A reminder from me about the AGM which is taking place on Monday 20th May 2019 at 2.00.

This is an opportunity to select your committee to take us through the coming year and to also vote on the proposed name change as mentioned in last month's newsletter from Dawlish U3A to Dawlish and District U3A. The reasons for this proposal will be stated at the AGM and there will be time for discussion. We will also have the results of the member questionnaire which has taken place over the last couple of months. If you haven't had a questionnaire from the convenor of your group or at the general meeting in March, please contact myself or Patricia Angove, Newsletter Co-ordinator.

Below is a Membership Renewal Reminder from Barbara. Please make sure that you have either already renewed your membership by the time of the AGM or that you make sure to renew it at the AGM.

I am really looking forward to seeing you at the AGM and am ready for another great year with the U3A.

Art Appreciation

Many thanks to Richard for giving such an interesting presentation on the origins of art, prompting us to consider what we understand the concept of 'art'. We looked at fascinating examples of cave art not only from Europe but also from India, China and South East Asia. At our next meeting at 2pm on Monday 13th May, we invite all participants to bring examples of art which exemplify Spring in some way. The venue will be decided closer to the day.

Play Reading

We will meet on Tuesday May 21st at 1.30pm at Edens Court in Teignmouth.

In April we read 'The Devil at Midnight' by Brian Clemens. Different from our usual fare, this was a thriller, and 'Googling' the playwright I found that he had been a TV scriptwriter. 'The Avengers' was amongst his prolific output for this medium. No wonder we enjoyed it.

The plays we read are chosen from a selection provided by the Library service, now called 'Libraries Unlimited', from Exeter. We try to choose something with the right number of characters for the group and not too long. Please come along and enjoy a couple of hours of escape from the real world.

Email playreading@u3a.dawlish.info or ask at the monthly meeting for contact details

Creative Writing

There will be no meeting in May since our usual day falls on a Bank Holiday.

The next meeting of the Creative writing group will be Monday 24th June 2019 at 10.30am Edens Court in Teignmouth. At the March meeting we each picked two objects from a random selection and incorporated them both into a piece of writing to be read at the April meeting. There were as many different ideas as group members. We meet on the fourth Monday of the month.

Simple Science (formerly known as Gadgets and Gizmos)

At the last meeting, Miggie Pickton gave an excellent presentation on where to find open source pictures etc. without breaking the copyright laws. It is a complicated subject, but she made it simple to understand and kept it interesting.

Next month we will start a series of presentations / discussions on the International Space Station, that cover both the technical and human aspects of living in space. Barry Hamill will do the first one which looks at the concept and purpose of ISS, and it will be held on: Thursday 9th May 2019 at 10:00 at 8 Honeysuckle Drive, Dawlish. Any U3A members are welcome.

For further information, please contact Jack Whitehead at simplescience@u3a.dawlish.info or 01626 867001 as it would be helpful to know in advance the number of people attending so we can arrange venues.
